JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

On March 30, 2017, James Monaghan filed a complaint against JPMorgan Chase & Co. and its affiliates, board, committees, and officers in 17-CV-2315, alleging violation of Sections 409 and 502 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. (17-CV-2315, Docket No. 1). The Court accepted this case as related to the already-consolidated cases in 17-CV-563 (JMF), as the cases all appear to involve common questions of law and fact. The Court believes 17-CV-2315 should be consolidated with the other cases in 17-CV-563. Any party that objects to consolidation shall file a letter on or before April 6, 2017.

By prior Order, the Court indicated that it intended to appoint interim lead class counsel pursuant to Rule 23(g) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and set April 10, 2017, as the deadline for any motions. (See 17-CV-563, Docket No. 27). If counsel in Monaghan v. JPMorgan Chase & Co., 17-CV-2315, wish to be considered for interim lead class counsel in the event that the case is consolidated with the others, counsel shall file a motion by that deadline in accordance with the Court's prior Order.

SO ORDERED.
